

Beaming smiles light up night of honours

GERARD Baden-Clay's smile was even wider than usual on Friday night when his beloved Century 21 Westside was inducted into the Westside News Business Achiever Awards Hall of Fame.

The real estate agency earned the plaudit after taking out the Real Estate award for the third time.

"I'm speechless, which really says something," Mr Baden-Clay said.

"We provide people with the best possible service and I think this win reflects that."

Meanwhile, Rosalie's Red Works Furniture owner Karla Martin says her staff and customers are to thank after taking home the gong for House and Home Retail.

"Our customers tell us it's an experience (coming to our store)," Ms Martin said. "All our products are unique but it's the customers that make the difference."

Despite a year of ups and downs, Amy Gaudie from Urban Chic won the Hairdressers category.

Ms Gaudie left the Ashgrove West salon in February to have a baby and thanked her husband and staff for their support.

"I am really surprised and know this is a great honour for our salon," she said.

CM173871

VICTORY: Karla Martin and Milena Fountain, Redworks Furniture and Homewares.

"We won last year and know our customers voted for us because we are good at what we do. We treat our customers like family members and listen to their needs."

CM173871

HOSTS WITH THE MOST: Comperes Miranda Deakin and Tony Johnston with State Member for Ashgrove Kate Jones.

ECSTATIC: Clare Donaldson and Melissa Hahne from Beauty on Latrobe. Inset, Century Westside's Gerard Baden-Clay and Phill Broom celebrate their win.

CM1